Sean M. Flynn Attends Prestigious Chairman's Retreat 2014

Topsfield, MA (March 2014)—Sean M. Flynn, Principal of Commonwealth Financial Network in Topsfield, MA, gathered with a group of leading financial advisors invited to participate in Commonwealth Financial Network[®]'s Chairman's Retreat, March 13–15, 2014, at the Wynn Hotel in Las Vegas, Nevada. Chairman's Retreat—Commonwealth's highest level of recognition, representing just 3 percent of the broker/dealer–RIA's advisor network—is an intensive learning and networking experience designed to support the firm's elite advisors.

The 2014 Chairman's Retreat took advisors Inside Extraordinary, offering an exclusive look at service excellence through stimulating and engaging sessions led by seasoned hospitality and financial services industry executives and Commonwealth's senior staff. Keynote speakers and breakout sessions spanned topics of leadership, strategic growth and development, relationship management, operational efficiencies, and maintaining an impeccable standard of service excellence. Portions of this three-day Retreat were also dedicated to collaborating with peers through multiple advisor networking roundtables.

“Each year, we strive to create a dynamic Chairman's Retreat that is equally innovative, enriching, and insightful,” said Joseph Deitch, chairman of Commonwealth. “Every advisor within this group of elite financial professionals plays an integral role in shaping the collaborative nature of the retreat. And what better setting to share thoughts, ideas, and perspectives on delivering world-class service than Las Vegas. Our time was spent meeting with some of the most brilliant professionals in business, hospitality, and entertainment in our never-ending quest to raise the bar on client service and satisfaction.”

Deitch continued, “By taking part in this exclusive event, and also working together with Commonwealth's senior management and numerous leaders of other institutions, Flynn demonstrates a steadfast commitment to his practice and a desire to offer the greatest value to his esteemed clients.”

Flynn had the exclusive opportunity to engage with influential business professionals, who represented a broad spectrum of backgrounds and expertise, including Brian Gullbrants, executive vice president and general manager of Wynn Las Vegas and Encore Las Vegas; Ben Mezrich, New York Times best-selling author; and Jon Picoult, founder and principal of Watermark Consulting.

Three speakers associated with the William F. Harrah College of Hotel Administration at UNLV—Bo Bernhard, PhD, executive director of the International Gaming Institute and professor; Tony Lucas, PhD, professor; and Arthur Nathan, visiting lecturer—also addressed attendees.

“The opportunity to collaborate and share ideas with your peers and fellow industry leaders within the unique setting of Chairman’s Retreat is a truly invaluable experience,” said Flynn. “The structure and enriching environment of the retreat encourages me to think critically and brings a renewed perspective to my practice. From strategic growth to leadership, the takeaways are immeasurable. Attending Chairman’s is both personally rewarding and professionally fulfilling, and my participation exemplifies my steadfast commitment to not only strengthening the core of my business, but also providing my clients with unparalleled service excellence.”
